DETAILED ACTION

Response to Preliminary Amendment

In response to the a preliminary amendment filed July 8, 2004 wherein applicant amends the specification, submits corrected drawings and claims 1-34 are pending in this application.

Drawings

The drawings were received on September 2, 2004. These drawings are acceptable.

Reasons for Allowance

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art does not disclose nor teach according to claims 1,30,31 and 34 a liquid racing game for a plurality of game players contained in a console comprising a liquid outlet; a vessel to receive the liquid outlet; a first variable positioning mount connected between the console and the liquid outlet; a second variable position mount connected between the console and the vessel; and wherein a player interface controlled by the game player moves the vessel at the second variable positioning mount to receive the liquid from the liquid outlet and liquid detection device adapted to determine a level of the liquid in the vessel. The cited prior art discloses a water gun target game for a plurality of game players comprising a water gun controlled by a player; a target; where the water gun controlled by the player is used to aim and shoot at the target with a stream of water to activate a switch that controls different types of amusement devices to fill up a container, or move a character to the top in a race game. The cited prior art fails to disclose a liquid outlet into a vessel having a first variable positioning mount connected between the console and the liquid outlet; a second variable position
